THOMAS, THE RADICAL CANDIDATE.

The regulations between the Radicals and the Independents have been concluded. It is understood that General Money is to retire; that Yardley is to be repulsed; and that Thomas is to be the Radical candidate for governor. The white Republicans seem to think that a negro candidate for governor, or senator, or the State legislature, is an insupportable pill which they cannot swallow under any circumstances, however much they may be circumvented, and hence they prefer to support a white Independent to a black Republican who has been true to his party while Thomas was a Democrat. We predicted from the start that Thomas and his little squad of Independents would go over to the Radicals, for a Democrat never yet repulsed the organization of his party without landing in the Radical ranks. Every one must feel and see and know that Dorsey B. Thomas is to be the Radical candidate for governor in opposition to P. H. H. He will head the Radical ticket for congress and for the legislature, nominated by Radicals in the interest of Radicals. It will be voted for by the Radical party, and will be worked for by every man who favored the disfranchisement of the southern people, and who stigmatized them as traitors. We cannot believe that the Democracy of Shelby county will co-operate with Barbour Lewis, Emerson Eberidge and Dorsey B. Thomas in their efforts to disorganize and destroy the Democratic party and to transfer Shelby county to the Radicals. If there be a Democrat in Shelby county, a southern man with a heart in his bosom—who would desert the banner of his friends and take service in the interest of the Radicals, who have so long robbed and oppressed the southern people, let him, before entering upon the unnatural alliance, call to mind the scandalous villainies of the party with which he is co-operating. The northern Democracy is laboring to free the south from the oppression and usurpations of the Radicals, who have driven the plowshare of ruin over the constitution and laws and obliterated every vestige of Republican institutions. If there be a Democrat in Shelby contemplating a vote with Barbour Lewis let him reflect upon the forgotten past and ask himself how he can cast his vote against his friends and for the triumph of those who have persecuted the southern people with all the devilish energy that torture could invent. Axioms as are the Democrats to forget the past, they are not ingrates to strike down their friends and co-operate with the Radicals, who have plundered and disfranchised the tax payer and persecuted a variegated and defenseless foe. The Radicals have seized hold of the government and are urging it forward in a career that must end in a common ruin. The Democratic party stands as a bulwark to stay the tide of corruption and despotism. Its mission and its persistent effort is to arrest this headlong destruction and restore the government to peace, tranquility and prosperity. To accomplish this great work the Democratic party is organized, and its legions are marshing to victory. The Democracy of Shelby county, instead of co-operating with Lewis and the Radicals, should stand firm to their comrades.
